Ms. Friedermann discussed the concerns, specifically for the 4th Grade and the steps being taken to improve teacher effectiveness, get more student growth and ultimately raise the number of % passing.

Discussions took place regarding the correlation between new teachers and poor student performance. In addition, team dynamics and focus were reviewed. Ms. Friedermann discussed how The Center for Student Achievement has been implementing their observations, trainings and feedback and commented on the effectiveness of the program.

4. Review The Center for Student Achievement SWOT Report for the First Semester

Jessica Friedermann presented the Board with the Mid-Year Summary & SWOT Analysis provided by The Center for Student Achievement's Michaela Clausen. The report is intended to be a measure of program implementation and identify any areas of growth to work on before the state assessment. It measures the school's readiness to improve student achievement levels and increase the school's grade label. It assesses the current school situation both internally

(strengths and weaknesses) and externally (opportunities and threats). The report is meant to provide a baseline to start conversations and to collectively problem solve to drive student achievement.

The Board reviewed, in depth, those areas of weakness and discussed how these areas are being addressed. The Board also acknowledged the numerous strengths that were highlighted in the report.

5. Review Updates on Staffing

Jennifer Pennington reviewed staff issues for the first semester. She provided the Board with information regarding current and upcoming maternity leaves, terminations, and resignations. She explained what is being put in place to fill the spots temporarily or permanently.
